

Library of Congress

Sunday June 23

1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

JUNETEENTH: A Celebration of Freedom

An African American holiday marking the end of slavery in the United States

at Durand-Hedden House
523 Ridgewood Rd., Maplewood

Keynote Speaker: Khalil Gibran Muhammad

Activities for all ages:

- Learn about Juneteenth and the history of enslaved people in New Jersey
- Historical reenactors bring to life the stories of real people from the Civil War era
- Singers and musicians
- Paper quilt-making, face painting, storytellers and more
- Delicious food available for sale

Visit the Country Store and special vendors

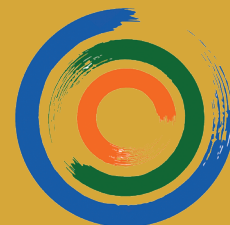

Sign up for free at:
www.durandhedden.org

Juneteenth
Celebration band,
June 19, 1900
Photo by Grace Murray
Stephenson

Juneteenth
Emancipation Day,
June 19, 1900
Austin Public Library

SOUTH ORANGE | MAPLEWOOD
COMMUNITY COALITION
ON RACE

DURAND-HEDDEN
House & Garden

CO-SPONSORED BY: